

Civil Aviation Authority of Sri Lanka

Expression of Interest to serve CAA as Legal Consultants

The Civil Aviation Authority of Sri Lanka occasionally requires lawyers both to advise on prospective cases and to represent the Authority in litigation in the performance of its duties and functions. The Authority intends to create a panel of solicitors and of Senior and Junior Counsel with relevant expertise who wish to be considered for the above purposes as and when required. Relevant areas of expertise are the following:

- Aviation Law
- Competition Law
- Judicial Review
- Criminal Law
- Communications Law (including telecommunications)
- Environmental Law
- Energy Law
- Labour Law
- Company Law
- Arbitration Law

Solicitors and barristers with sound experience in the above or any other area which they consider to be relevant to the duties and functions of the Authority may register their interest by supplying the Authority with the following information:

- Name of the firm or the lawyer
- Business address and contact details
- Details of qualifications
- Details of relevant experience in respective subjects above
- Details of rates charged for advices, consultations, drafting of pleadings and court representation Indication of general availability, where possible.
- Any other information pertinent to the matter

The Authority does not guarantee to obtain services from all those lawyers who are placed on its panel, and the Authority reserves the right to consult and engage lawyers who are not on the panel.

General Information on the work of the Authority may be found on its website at www.caa.lk

Responses may be sent by e-mail to ddhrom@caa.lk or posted to Deputy Director (Human Resources and Office Management), of the Authority.
